BORN 1964 / ORAN, ALGERIA / LIVES AND WORKS IN PARIS

SUMMARY / 简介

Philippe Parreno (born 1964 in Oran, Algeria; lives and works in Paris) is an artist who treats the exhibition as a medium. Working across film, sculpture, drawing and text, he conceives exhibitions as scripted spaces in which events unfold over time. Objects, images, architecture, sound and light enter shifting relations, turning the visit into a singular, durational experience rather than a collection of autonomous works.

菲利普·帕雷诺1964年出生于阿尔及利亚奥兰，现居住并工作于巴黎。他将展览本身视为一种媒介，创作横跨电影、雕塑、绘画与文字，并把展览构想为一个由事件随时间展开的剧本化空间。物体、影像、建筑、声音与光在其中不断建立新的关系，使观看成为一种独特而持续的经验，而不只是对一组彼此独立作品的观看。

Practice / 实践

EXHIBITION AS MEDIUM / 将展览作为媒介

Parreno radically redefines the exhibition experience by taking its construction as the heart of the artistic process. His exhibitions behave like mutable systems: programmed rhythms, staged events and responsive objects make the exhibition itself the site of the work. This approach connects film, sculpture, drawing, text, architecture, light and sound in one changing situation.

帕雷诺把展览的建构置于创作过程的核心，重新定义展览经验。展览如同可变系统：被编排的节奏、被上演的事件与能够回应环境的物体，使展览本身成为作品发生的场所。电影、雕塑、绘画、文字、建筑、光与声音在同一场持续变化的情境中发生关系。
